

WSRA Institute

Digging Deeper: Actively Engaging Adolescents

Saturday, September 27, 2008

Country Springs Hotel • Waukesha, Wisconsin

SALE
the Date

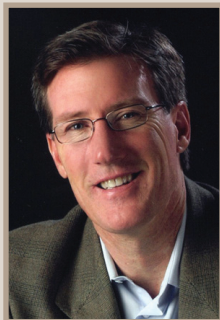

Keynote Address

Kelly Gallagher

• Motivating Adolescent Readers

If our students are to become readers, they must understand the reasons why reading is an essential component in becoming literate. Kelly Gallagher will share classroom-tested motivational techniques to help our students understand the importance of being readers.

Breakout Sessions

Kelly Gallagher

- Building Deeper Readers
- Teaching Adolescent Writers: Overcoming the Forgotten "R"

Kelly Gallagher is a full-time English teacher at Magnolia High School in Anaheim, California, where he has taught twenty-one years. He is the author of Reading Reasons: Motivational Mini-Lessons for the Middle and High School, Deeper Reading: Comprehending Challenging Texts, and Teaching Adolescent Writers.

Doug Buehl

- Addressing the Academic Knowledge Gap
- Generating "Thicker" Classroom Questions
- "Insider" Questions

Doug Buehl has worked for 33 years as a Reading Teacher for the Madison Metropolitan School District. He is currently co-chairing the DPI Adolescent Literacy Task Force. Doug served on the task force that developed the national standards for Literacy Coaches for Middle and High School. He is the author of Classroom Strategies for Interactive Learning (2001), co-author of Reading and the High School Student (2007) and co-author of Strategies to Enhance Literacy and Learning In the Middle School Content Area Classroom (2007).

Watch the WSRA website in the spring for further details: www.wsra.org

WSRA members will receive registration information in the mail